“Running a travel agency sounds like a glamorous business when you hear about the hotel visits, restaurant evaluations and resort stays. Unfortunately the reality for most travel agents is long hours, weekend work and difficult clients. In addition, you had to contend with the global financial crisis, plane strikes and a fluctuating dollar together with compliance issues associated with your trust account.”

Paul Dobson - Director

Being a retailer with virtually no stock makes it challenging not to mention your customised software like Galileo or Amadeus. Your clients expect you to know everything about transportation, accommodation, car rentals, tours and tourist attractions. On top of that you also need to deal with usual small business compliance issues associated with GST, BAS, PAYG and superannuation. Here at SBG Accountants & Business Advisors we understand the travel agency business. In fact, Paul Dobson and his team of accountants have mentored dozens of travel agents through the various stages of their business life cycle, from start up right through to sale. The team offer you experience and an intimate understanding of the travel industry.

THINKING OF STARTING or BUYING INTO A TRAVEL AGENCY?

As a business start up specialist we can provide you with a comprehensive range of accounting, tax and business coaching services. To help you make the right opening moves in your travel agency business we have created a number of practical tools including a comprehensive start up expense checklist. This tool is designed to help you identify all your potential start up costs broken down into categories including leasehold improvements, IT, marketing, furniture & fittings, professional services, licenses and working capital. These figures then automatically feed into an integrated cash flow budget to help you identify any finance requirements and this can then tuck neatly into your business plan.
